

British Journal of Photography

ESTABLISHED 1854

Work

CURRENT ISSUE
NOT TO BE BORROWED

70

Kadir van Lohuizen

Do you know where the food on your plate comes from? The Dutch artist's Food for Thought transports viewers to Saudi Arabian tomato farms, mega-gardens in Shouguang, China, and industrial-scale mango fields in Kenya. It is a story as geopolitical as it is gastronomic.

148

In the Studio

Whether a tool library in east London or photographers documenting the plight of Afghanistan, Jenny Matthews is drawn to artistic honesty and mutual care. Alice Zoo visits her textile-laden studio to discuss the role of politics in the arts.

Agenda

- 11 Exhibition: SMITH at NŌUA, Norway
- 16 Exhibition: Ming Smith in Ohio
- 20 Photofair: Paris Photo (and beyond)
- 26 Exhibition: The 80s: Photographing Britain at Tate Britain
- 30 Photofestival: Bristol Photo Festival
- 36 Any Answers: Albert Kelleher of The Photographers' Gallery
- 38 Spotlight: POUISH studio, Paris

Projects

- 43 Ayaka Endo
- 48 Barry Macdonald
- 52 Daniel Chatard
- 56 Chiara Calgaro
- 62 Jorge Panchoaga

Features

- 70 Kadir van Lohuizen
- 82 Lindsay Caldicott
- 90 Samar Hazboun
- 102 Christina Fernandez
- 115 The Miners' Strike
- 126 Taking Stock: David O'Mara, Victoria Ahrens, Tony Chirinos
- 140 Foto/Industria
- 148 In the Studio: Jenny Matthews

Intelligence

- 159 Protest in Photobook collection and library
- 164 The legacy of Pier 24 in San Francisco
- 168 London School of Economics on photographing wealth
- 172 Eastern European photography redefined
- 176 Obituary: Dutch photographer Bertien van Manen
- 180 Loose Joints: 10 years of publishing
- 184 Bookshelf: the latest photobooks
- 194 Bluecoat Press: Charlie Phillips

Printed on materials sourced from FSC sustainable sources using soya-based inks.

PRINT GROUP

Printed by Stephens & George Ltd