

British Journal of Photography

ESTABLISHED 1854

THE
PORTRAIT
ISSUE

114

Portrait of Humanity

Portrait of Humanity is an award by British Journal of Photography considering diversity, community and unity through photography.

This year's three series finalists, Camille Gharbi (above), Seif Kousmate and Andrés Mario de Varona discuss their winning work.

132

Studio Shehrazade

Documenting the wide-ranging lifestyles of Lebanese society in his photographic studio since 1953, Hashem el Madani left behind decades-worth of invaluable material on the Arab world, a legacy that Akram Zaatari is on a mission to preserve.

Agenda

- 9 Exhibition: Bettina von Zwehl
- 14 Photofestival: Chennai Photo Biennale
- 18 Photobook: Kirsty Mackay
- 22 Exhibition: Pushing the Envelope at the National Museum of Computing
- 26 Photofestival: Photo Phnom Penh
- 30 Any Answers: Max Gorbatskyi at Open Eye Gallery
- 32 Spotlight: Portrait(s) festival

Projects

- 39 Tamara Abdul Hadi
- 44 Santiago Escobar-Jaramillo
- 50 Aria Shahrokhshahi
- 56 Sofiia Vinnichenko
- 62 Ryley Clarke

Features

- 70 Daniel Mebarek
- 80 Amak Mahmoodian
- 92 Jet Swan
- 108 Gerry Badger
- 114 Portrait of Humanity: Camille Gharbi, Seif Kousmate, Andrés Mario de Varona
- 132 Studio Shehrazade
- 142 Alan Adler/Metro-Auto-Photo
- 152 In the Studio: Adama Jalloh

Intelligence

- 165 Tribute to photojournalist Paul Lowe
- 168 Studio KENE in Bamako and Rome
- 172 Photography Ethics Centre on considered approaches to imagery
- 176 Kamoinge collective seeks new horizons
- 180 Baxter St builds community in New York
- 184 Bookshelf: the latest photobooks
- 194 Bluecoat Press: Matt Stuart

Printed on materials sourced from FSC sustainable sources using soya-based inks.

S&G
PRINT GROUP

Printed by Stephens & George Ltd