

Since the double major or minor transcripts are issued separately, the grades of the courses you take do not affect your major program.