

The maximum education period of the Double Major program, assuming the year / semester you started the Double Major is considered as the beginning;

- is 7 years for undergraduate degree students,
- 4 years for associate degree students.

In the minor program, the program must be completed with a maximum of two semesters of additional time after graduating from the major program.