COURSE ENROLMENTS
Q&A

1: How many credits can I take in a semester?

The course load that can be taken during a semester is 32 ECTS.

GPA:	Class:	Ders Yükü (AKTS) :	Total ECTS :
1.64	2	32	170

If your cumulative grade point average is between 2.00-2.49, you can take additional 6 ECTS courses,

GPA:	Class:	Ders Yükü (AKTS) :	Total ECTS :
2.35	3	38	154

if it is 2.50 and above you can take additional 12 ECTS courses.

GPA:	Class:	Ders Yükü (AKTS) :	Total ECTS :
3.63	3	44	159

At the graduation stage, if you are a final semester undergraduate student with at least 200 ECTS and an associate student with at least 80 ECTS and can graduate at the end of the semester, you can take courses up to 48 ECTS in total with the approval of your advisor.

2: How can I move up to the upper grade?

To move up to the 2nd grade, you must have at least 1.50 cumulative GPA at the end of the first year,
To move up to the 3rd grade, you must have at least 1,70 cumulative GPA at the end of the second year,
To move up to the 4th grade, you must have at least 1,80 cumulative GPA at the end of the third year.

You must have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00 in order to graduate.

3: Which courses can I take if I don't move up to the upper grade?

If you must repeat a grade,

First, you are obliged to take the courses you failed and absent from and the courses of the lower grade that you have not taken yet.

If you wish, with the approval of your advisors, you can take courses you have already taken and succeeded in to improve your grade.

Again, with the approval of your advisor, you can take a maximum of 12 ECTS credit upper grade courses.

However, students who repeat the same grade more than four semesters, cannot take courses from the upper grade.

4: Which semester should I take a course that I failed and / or did not take at all?

Failed courses and missing courses must be taken in the first semester they are offered. For example, if this course is a Fall semester course, you must take the course in the following first fall semester, if it is a Spring semester course, you must take the course in the following spring semester.

Failed courses and missing courses are displayed in different colors on the course registration screen.

6: Can I change the Elective or General Education course I failed?

If students wish and their advisors approve it, they can take another elective or General Education course in place of the elective course or General Education course they failed or withdrew.

After downloading and filling the "Elective Course Change Form" and the "General Education Course Change Form" on the course registration page, you can send it to the Student Affairs Directorate employee in charge of your department.

ATTENTION!
The courses expected to be taken are in order of priority;
- First of all, you have to take the courses that you failed (FF, FD, W, U) and were absent (NA) during the current semester (Spring).
- They have to take the courses that they have not taken yet in the relevant semester (Spring).
- They have to take the courses that they have not taken yet for the class they are in in the relevant semester (Spring).
- Then they can take the courses of other semesters or the courses of the next semester.

Students, who take a new elective course instead of an Elective course and a new General Education Course instead of a General Education Course they have taken from the upper grade failed in the past, will be able to register for courses after they read and approve the warning message that will appear on the OASIS course registration screen. They must fill(The elective course change form - The general education course change form) send an e-mail to the Student Affairs Directorate staff in charge of their department.

 Asynchronous course is the realization of distance education asynchronously. Lessons are not live or real time. The instructor makes the course and course materials accessible. The student goes online or attends the class at the most convenient time.

7: How can I register for a course?

On the course registration screen, you will see:

- Failed courses (if any),
- Missing courses,
- Courses you can take in your current grade,
- General Education Courses

Each of these courses is color-coded differently.
You can see the number of sections of the course in the "Sections" column opposite the courses.

For each course listed here, you can click the "Search" button to review the weekly schedules and quotas of that course in the "Search Results" section.
