

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. read the academic articles and studies on the importance of language beliefs in the foreign language learning process
2. examined the similarities and differences in language learning attitudes between students in a Turkish medium program and those in an English medium program
3. investigated the learners' perceptions, and how their belief systems play a significant role in their learning process
4. improved research skills by running a quantitative study with 200 participants

If you want to read the article, click here!

For the Badge Rubric, click here!