

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. analysed her own teaching methods through a series of planned observations
2. investigated her use of the board, student participation methods and ways of giving and checking instructions identified
3. reflected on her teaching in these areas