

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

- Gained insights into teacher research, including:
 - Data collection
 - Qualitative data analysis.
- Reflected on findings and drew conclusions that could inform future teaching.
- Understood the complexity of the classroom and went beyond simplistic explanations.
- Demonstrated the ability to write a formal research report, which included:
 - Description of the context and methodology
 - Data extracts
 - Analysis and reflection
 - Academic references.
- disseminated her professional development work among her colleagues within the institution