

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Involved students in discussion of academic writing as key stakeholders
2. Engaged with research processes including data collection, reviewing and transcribing lesson extracts
3. Reflected on students' and own views of academic writing through written output
4. Come to new understandings of academic writing as a multifaceted rather than monolithic concept