

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Refreshed and acquired more knowledge on implementing a variety of approaches to better address the needs of repeating students.
2. Improved knowledge and skills on building rapport with repeating students.
3. Developed questionnaires to understand the perceptions and motivation of repeating students.
4. Improved research skills.
5. Improved reflection and feedback practices through regular meetings with the teaching partner and project coach.