

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Obtained a positive experience of using the inductive method in teaching grammatical topics.
2. Exchanged of experience with a colleague of the Italian language in teaching languages.
3. Gained experience of working with students who study grammatical gender in Italian language.
4. Proved the production of the language is more effective when students analyse and formulate grammar rules by themselves.
5. Contributed to the assimilation of the concept of grammatical gender in languages.