

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

compiled data on giving feedback to students in writing lessons throughout 3 modules concluded that

1. simplified criteria should be available to the students in Turkish for lower levels and English for B1+ students
2. oral feedback is still a crucial element in writing lessons
3. focusing on important part of the writing process like content and cohesion related elements at a time is the most beneficial way of giving feedback