

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Gained confirmation that the course is overwhelmingly beneficial in the eyes of both teachers and students
2. Collected valuable feedback on course content and the coursebook from teachers and instructors that will be implemented in future terms as the course continues to evolve (especially the 2nd edition of the coursebook and course assessment)
3. Experienced various data collection methods, both quantitative and qualitative (student focus groups, surveys, teacher feedback forms, etc.)
4. Improved technical skills (i.e. SPSS, excel formulas, Google Forms, etc.)
5. Gained personal satisfaction from seeing the results of my efforts as coordinator in progressively developing the course from its infancy
