

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Improved knowledge on the place of reflection within education.
2. Evaluated and reflected on the implications of the transition to fully online teaching on both a professional and personal basis.
3. Reflected on the importance of continual personal professional development and evaluated methods to pursue such development.
4. Used reflection to evaluate how to improve overall performance in the classroom both for the teacher and for the students.
5. Presented the methods and outcomes of the reflective activities as part of an online workshop series.