

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Identified the learners' need for a continued connection with the instructor in forced online education.
2. Improved knowledge on the place of reflection within education.
3. Implemented a variety of reflective activities with students in online activities.
4. Presented the methods and outcomes of the reflective activities as part of an online workshop series.