

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Identified the common issues related to the online platforms during Covid-19.
2. Provided the students and instructors with synchronous and asynchronous guidance on the problems they faced when using the online platforms.
3. Made the necessary changes on the related software to exploit the platforms more effectively and efficiently.