

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Showed instructors a way to identify low performing students and compare course design with other courses
2. Provided instructors a way to identify patterns of failure and intervene early
3. Revealed a method to allow instructors to identify students who are interacting with their courses, and how much activity is recorded,
4. Presented instructors with a way to identify non-engaging students who are not submitting their assignments and therefore may need assistance