

This badge certifies that the bearer has accomplished the following:

1. Raise awareness about the importance of collaboration between the students in the classroom.
2. Be aware of the importance of students' perception of usefulness of the activities performed during online sessions.
3. Use the grading as a tool to improve the work during sessions and control the participation.
4. Be able to give personalized feedback to the students using the technological tools available in class.
5. Enhance knowledge of the positive effects of observation, reflection, and feedback.